FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 19[illegible]

MAYOR MOULTON GONE.

On Wednesday morning of this [illegible] the people of Heber were shocked [illegible] learn of the death of their mayor, [illegible] E. Moulton, as a result of complications ending with pneumonia. The funeral services will be [illegible] tabernacle today [illegible].

Mr. Moulton [illegible] and is highly respected. He has filled many positions of [illegible] the church and in civil life and has acquitted himself well. From notes given us by the family we produce the following:

John Ephraim Moulton was born at Heber City, Utah, on September [illegible] 1860, was married to Isabell Tonks Thacker on March [illegible], 18[illegible] and to this union were born eight children, seven of whom survive him viz: Mrs. Charlotte Giles, John T. Moulton, Addison C. Moulton, Deyce Bell Moulton, Albert T. [illegible] and Ethel Fern Moulton. [illegible] and wife he leaves [illegible] brothers and sisters Joseph Moulton [illegible] James [illegible]ber Moulton of Heber, Charlotte Carroll of Grayson, [illegible] Elizabeth Hickam of Heber, [illegible] Moulton and George F. Moulton of Victor, Idaho. These together with many other relatives and friends mourn what seems to be the [illegible] death of the departed.

His illness was of [illegible] duration. On Wednesday night of last week he attended the show and after returning home and retiring took a chill. He was carefully nursed from that time until he died [illegible] results. Bright's disease [illegible] its part in weakening the system and when the fatal pneumonia set in, friends and relatives feared the result though they Remained hopeful to the last.

The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MAYOR MOULTON

(Special Correspondence.)

Heber City, Feb. 5.—Funeral services for Mayor John E. Moulton, who died at his home here Wednesday, were held in the stake tabernacle at [illegible] this afternoon. Bishop Joseph [illegible] band officiated and the speakers were J. R. Murdock, J. C. Jensen, [illegible] Clyde, James H. McDonald and John H. Murdock. Music was by the second ward choir, supplemented by the singing of "Some Day We Will Understand," by a quartet composed of the following: J. R. Smith, Frank Eperson, Frank [illegible] and Jewett Fortie.

Among the floral tributes were two of exceptional merit, one presented by the city council and the other by the cattle company of which Mr. Moulton was a member. The funeral was unusually large. Interment was in the Heber City cemetery.

MAYOR JOHN E. MOULTON

1920

DEATH OF YOUNG MOTHER.

Deyce Moulton Robbins who was buried last Friday, was the daughter of John E. and Isabell Moulton and was born at Heber, Feb. 2, 1893. She was married to Hyrum W. Robbins on June 14th, 1916 and to them were born two children: a boy now aged 2½ years and a girl aged four months the day of the mother's demise.

During her single life, Mrs. Robbins was a very earnest worker in the auxiliary organizations of the church, having faithfully served in both Sunday School and in Primary.

She moved to the Heber 3rd ward about two years ago but returned to the 2nd ward this winter that she might be with and care for her mother who has been and still is ill. She was at her mother's home when stricken with the Flu on her birthday, and was nine days ill. Her father died on her birthday, five years ago. She passed quietly and seemingly without pain on Feb. 12th at 10 P. M. Her husband and children were afflicted at the same time and were unable to attend the funeral services, but are much improved at this time. Besides her husband and children she is survived by her mother and the following named brothers and sisters: Lottie Giles, Addison C. Moulton, Dewey and Ethel Moulton, all of Heber, and John T. and Albert T. Moulton of Idaho, who were ill with the Flu in Idaho at the time of Deyce's death.

Floral offerings at the time of holding funeral services were beautiful and profuse, showing the high esteem in which Deyce was held by her associates. On account of the Flu situation services were held at the Heber City cemetery on the 14th inst. Henry L. McMullin offered the opening prayer and the musical numbers were furnished by a quartette consisting of D. A. Broadbent, J. E. McMullin, Gladys Davis and Mabel M. Moulton. The speakers were Bishop Frederick Crook and Pres. D. A. Broadbent, both of whom eulogized the character and life of the deceased. F. W. Giles pronounced the dedicatory prayer.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire through the columns of this paper to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for all that was done for us in our hour of deep sorrow and need, for the watching "angels of mercy" who so kindly and tenderly watched over and cared for our beloved wife, mother and sister, for all the kindnesses shown her and us by our relatives, friends and neighbors, for the beautiful music, the beautiful floral offerings and for the kind and consoling words of the speakers.

Of course the sorrow is ours to bear but all these things help to lighten our heavy burden at this time.

Very Sincerely,
Hyrum W. Robbins and Family,
Isabell Moulton and Family.

From Bertha Bowman